Here’s who’s playing the 2019 Temecula Valley Balloon and Wine Festival

The Temecula Valley Balloon and Wine Festival happens May 31-June 2 at the Lake Skinner Recreation Area in Winchester.

3 Doors Down will perform at the Temecula Valley Balloon and Wine Festival on Saturday, June 1. (Courtesy of Dove Shore)

By ALEX GROVES | agroves@scng.com | The Press-Enterprise
PUBLISHED: May 26, 2019 at 11:05 am | UPDATED: May 26, 2019 at 11:06 am

The sight of glowing hot air balloons and the chance to sample an assortment of wines are obvious draws for people who visit the Temecula Valley Balloon and Wine Festival, but perhaps just as important as those elements is the music.

There will be plenty of alternative rockers and country crooners playing the main stage and wine stage for the event’s 36th year. Here’s a run down of the big acts for each night.

Sign up for our Festival Pass newsletter. Whether you are a Coachella lifer or prefer to watch from afar, get weekly dispatches during the Southern California music festival season. Subscribe here.

Friday, May 31
Chase Bryant: The country singer’s popular songs include “Hell If I Know,” “Little Bit of You” and “Take It On Back.” He is the grandson of Jimmy Bryant, who played piano for Roy Orbison and Waylon Jennings.

Saturday, June 1
Dishwalla: The band has been active since the ‘90s and is probably best known for its hit “Counting Blue Cars.” The song earned it a Billboard Award for “Best Rock Song” in 1996.
Soul Asylum: Another popular band from the ‘90s, Soul Asylum, will also play Saturday night. Some of its include songs such as “Runaway Train,” “Misery,” “Just Like Anyone” and “Somebody to Shove.”
3 Doors Down: The alternative rockers put out a slew of hits through the early 2000s, including “Kryptonite,” “When I’m Gone” and “Here Without You.” Its 2000 album “The Better Life,” was certified six times platinum.

Sunday, June 2
Russell Dickerson: The Tennessee native struck commercial success with his 2017 album “Yours.” The album had two hit songs that made it onto the Billboard Hot 100, “Yours” and “Blue Tacoma.”
Big & Rich: The country duo’s “Save A Horse (Ride A Cowboy)” has become part of the musical rotation at many a country music dance hall. Other popular Big & Rich songs are “Comin’ To Your City,” “California” and “Fake ID” featuring Gretchen Wilson.